

East Bridgford Drama Group
Presents the World Premiere of:

All Washed Up!

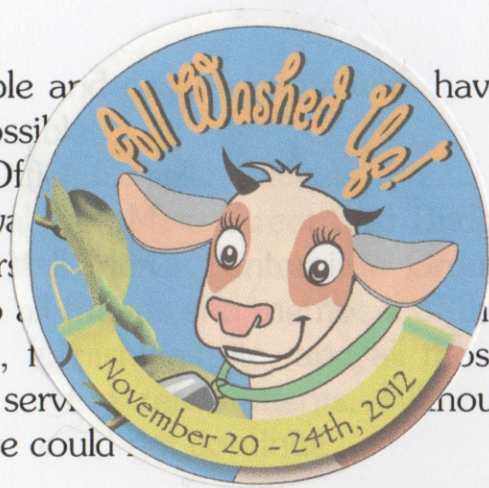

A comedy by David Valentine

When the local repertory company has been told to put on a Pantomime to help revive their sagging fortunes, anything can, and does, happen!

Tues 20th - Sat 24th November 2012
East Bridgford Village Hall from 7.30pm

Part Play,
Part Panto,
Part Mayhem!

We owe thanks to lots of people who have helped make this production possible. East Bridgford News and Post Office.

Mark, the landlord of the Royal East Bridgford for rehearsal facilities, Bir... for the loan of costumes and to... group who have loaned props, those who help with set-build and service. Without their efforts and commitment we could...

We can't function without new people coming to join us. If you have enjoyed the show tonight and fancy helping out either acting or backstage, you will get chance at both if you join, please contact our secretary, Michael Clarke, on 01949 20682. We put on three plays per year and hold a number of social events throughout the year.

This, sadly, will be Reg Bee's last Front of House duty. Over many, many years Reg has welcomed our audiences for each of our productions. He has also appeared in many of the plays we have performed. We will all miss his smiling face and ready wit but he knows he will always be welcome whenever he comes to visit us.
£7 a ticket Reg!

The action of the play takes place backstage of a theatre company as it rehearses a pantomime.

Act One

Scene 1: Behind the scenes on set.

Scene 2: The rehearsal-part costume-technical issues.

Scene 3: Meltdown.

Interval

Act Two

Scene 1: The next day.

Scene 2: A little later.

Scene 3: The panto scene.

Scene 4: Back at the cottage.

DIRECTOR'S NOTES

Tonight's performance is dedicated to my dad, John Valentine, prolific writer and producer of pantomimes for the Birstall (Leicestershire) Methodist Church Men's Pantomime.

Over a period of forty years he wrote, produced and directed all the classic pantomimes, raising tens of thousands of pounds for the Church and other charities. They are still performed every year to this day and attract capacity audiences.

My grateful thanks to all at the East Bridgford Drama Group for the inspiration to write this and for their support.

A special mention to Dave Darby for his helpful and knowledgeable suggestions during the editing of the script.

But most of all, thanks to Jackie.

David Valentine
