

plays to list them all. She has been 'resting' since she appeared in 'There Goes The Bride', three years ago. Welcome back, Janet.

REG BEE: After being a faithful member of the audience for many years, Reg decided to join us. He started off as a chicken in 'Golden Pathway Annual', and has also appeared in 'Barefoot in the Park' and 'Play On'.

THE DIRECTOR: Geoff Morgan joined the group in 1991 and made his debut in 'Play On', he was followed into the group by his wife, Liz. We now have both of them involved in this production. The cast will tell you that he's a hard task master who knows what he wants. Well done Geoff, you have got the best out of all the players.

DEAR DELINQUENT

by Jack Popplewell

David Warren arrives home at one in the morning and disturbs an intruder, pretty, blond and only 20 years old. Should he let her go or hand her over to the police? Penelope decides to turn from the life of crime that her father, Henry Shawn, has trained her for. She sets her sights at David, does he succumb to her soft Irish charm or remain faithful to his well-to-do, rich fiancée, Helen? With visits from the police, Uncle George, his Mother, Helen and Penelope's father, David's life descends into chaos as stolen jewels disappear and reappear and his engagement lurches from crisis to crisis!

THE CAST

DAVID DARBY: Joined E.B.D.G. in 1986, 20 years after his acting career began. He has acted in nine productions and directed two. His artistic talents have been seen on many posters, programmes and of course on the sets.

MICHAEL CLARKE: Since joining the group in the late 70's Michael has played many roles including murderers, crooks, detectives, Germans, a Russian and now a Butler.

JACKY HARRIS (nee CAUNT): Jacky followed her parents to the group in 1990, she first appeared in 'Golden Pathway Annual', however, this was not her first appearance on stage, she was for many years a child actress with another group.

BOB LEVIS: Started with a 'bit' part in 'My Three Angels' and never looked back. A valuable member of many production teams, he has also starred in 'Wait Until Dark', 'Nightmare', 'Golden Pathway Annual', 'Pack of Lies', 'Two & Two Make Sex' and 'The Dame of Sark'.

JEFF CAUNT: Joined E.B.D.G. in 1988 and has appeared in 'One O'clock From The House', 'There Goes The Bride', 'Golden Pathway Annual', 'Pack of Lies' and 'Two & Two Make Sex'. When not 'acting' he's still 'active' in the production team.

LIZ MORGAN: A relative newcomer to the group, who made her debut as Cecile in 'The Dame of Sark'. She is at present attending a drama course at Newark with Kate Thornborrow, Jeff Caunt and Reg Bee.

JANET MORRIS: As a founder member of the group, Janet has acted in too many
