

very valuable member of the group in the role of Set Building and also producing many of our special Props.

Jean Starbuck (Jemma): 'Major Roles' are taken on by Jean as a matter of course and many of our group would not even attempt this. Just recall her performances in Play On, Pack of Lies, And a Nightingale Sang and you will know why we rate Jean so highly. Jean has also proved her worth with fine direction in The Dame of Sark.

The Director : Jacky Harris

This is Jacky's first try at direction with EBDG, although she has directed junior plays to a cup winning standard with her previous drama group. We all wish her every success in this new role.

DON'T LOSE THE PLACE

by Derek Benfield

When Sylvia's man friend Robin leaves her, she dreams up a rather unconventional way of replacing him.

Determined not to be let down for a second time, she has carefully arranged a time table in order to "try out" various assorted boyfriends and assess their suitability as a potential husband. But time tables have a way of going wrong when the suitors all arrive at her flat on the same summer evening. She turns to her good friend Jemma for help and this leads to unexpected results!

TONIGHT'S CAST

Dave Darby (Clive): Dave's talents are again on show tonight. Following his last role as Robert in Dangerous Corner he now puts on his comic hat. Many of our patrons will recall Dave's superb direction of And a Nightingale Sang last June.

Alan Haydock (Walter): Alan makes a welcome return to the stage in this his 26th acting role with EBDG ! A winner of several acting awards over the past few years , Alan will no doubt be keeping us well entertained again.

Kim Levis (Sylvia): Kim returns again following her performance as Stella in Shut your eyes and think of England. You will no doubt be able to recognise her this time, as she will be mostly fully dressed . Her previous major role was the part of Maggie in Dead of Night.

Mick Quinn (Eddie): Mick has leapt forward from small walk on one line parts in a few plays, to this , his first real chance to show off his talents. Mick's last role with us, was the part of Rubenstein in Shut your eyes and think of England. When not 'acting', Mick is a
