

As usual East Bridgford Drama Group would like to thank:

Frank Smith, Landlord at the Royal Oak, for providing our rehearsal facilities.

East Bridgford News and East Bridgford Post Office for selling tickets; also members and friends of the group who have kindly loaned furniture, props, and costumes, not forgetting all those who have helped with the set-build and serving refreshments.

We Need New Members!

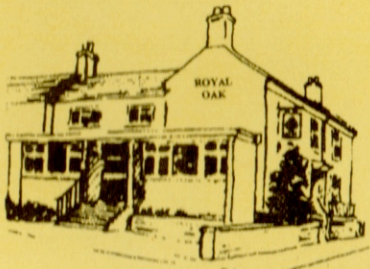

We are always in need of new members to act or to work back-stage. As you can imagine there are numerous jobs that take a variety of skills for each production and there is always someone willing to teach any inexperienced person, all you need is enthusiasm, we were all new once! Don't just watch the telly, get involved in live theatre!

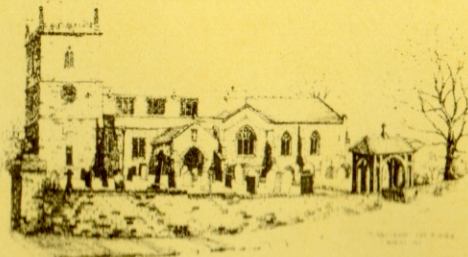

We also hold play readings through the summer months and have social events. If you would like to join the group please ring our secretary, Michael Clarke, on: 01949 20682 or ask any member of the group.

Our Next Production April 25th-29th 2006

The perfect finish to your evening, a visit to the Royal Oak, Main Street, East Bridgford; the group recommend its friendly atmosphere.

St Peter's doesn't need £500,000, but it does need your support; you can be sure of a warm welcome

Tonight's Cast

Alan Haydock

Tonight Alan plays a harassed husband who sees his opportunity to get out of the rat-race, live dangerously (perhaps too dangerously) and make a new life. This is Alan's 48th play -only twice did he score more in his cricket career!

Jean Starbuck

Jean, once again, is the 'caring wife' who wants a well-earned holiday to help Sam relax, but even the best laid plans can go adrift.

Naomi Moss

This Naomi's first outing with the group. She is studying drama at New College Nottingham and tonight she is playing an actress just about to 'shine' in a cheese spread commercial.

Malcolm Cope

This evening Malcolm is a 'famous actor' who yearns for recognition and a job, or just easy money.

Jeff Casterton

Fresh out of the East End, Jeff just wants his own luggage, is that too much to ask?

Mick Quinn

Tonight Mick plays the well-educated, erudite visitor who is also in search of 'lost luggage' and he intends to get it back, no matter what!
