Taking the mickey

VILLAGE hall amateur dramatics will be satirised by East Bridgford Drama Group in the village hall next week.

The group is presenting four of Michael Green's coarse-acting plays under the umbrella title: "It'll be Alright on the Night."

The plays are "Streuth," a mock whodunnit; "The Cherry Sisters," cod Chekov; "Moby Dick," and "A Collier's Tuesday Tea," inspired by D. H. Lawrence.

The show, which opens on Wednesday and continues until Saturday, is directed by Geoff Peabody and John Finch.
