Life Goes On

A play by Adrian Hodges

MAY 2000

A thoughtful and very modern comedy which takes place in the period immediately following the funeral of George Marlowe who left this life unexpectedly whilst repairing his wife's hairdryer. The caterers have mixed up the wake with a child's fifth birthday party tea and from then on matters go the way of the jelly- downhill

TONIGHT'S CAST

CLIVE ALLEN is a new member of the group and makes his acting debut tonight. We wish him well as he breathes new life into the recently deceased George!

PETER SALTER a long standing group member and currently our Chairman. Peter was last seen as the suspicious solicitor in "Murder Mistaken".

HELEN HIRST is another new member treading the boards for the first time tonight.. We wish her well.

JEAN STARBUCK known so well to our audiences and has been seen in so many roles over the years – as they say, too numerous to mention. She was last seen keeping an uneasy peace with her father in "A Month of Sundays".

KATE THORNBURROW is another group stalwart turns to acting tonight as a brief respite from directing. She directed "A Month of Sundays".
