Murder Mistaken

by JANET GREEN

Murder is his business and generally speaking Edward Bare is a successful "businessman." Married first to Monica, rich, doting and a few years his senior, Edward waits amicably for her to die. It is not "poor Monnie's fault" that he comes one day to the mistaken conclusion that she is about to make a will in favour of her sister, and decides that, his only course is to hasten her end. But Edward has misjudged the woman for she meant to leave him everything. As it is, he finds himself with less than he had when she was alive. Edward is not daunted.

Until recently Freda was found backstage rather than on it. That was until she played the part of Jill in Seeds of Doubt. Tonight she plays the part of Monnie, the sickly wife of Edward Bare.
