THE PLAYERS

Len Jackson (Harold) - Last seen as the Reverend Arthur Humphrey in Pools Paradise and Herbert Soppitt in When We are Married. From these rather ineffective personalities, Len now portrays a highly successful (and resourceful) thriller writer. Amazing what getting an OBE can do!

Dave Darby (Riggs) - Director of last May's production of When We are Married, we are pleased to have Dave on stage this time after too long an absence. His previous stage appearance was in 1999 in Murder Mistaken where he played a character almost as shady as Riggs.

Sarah Taylor (Emma) - As with Dave, we have to share Sarah with Radcliffe Drama Group, so she also makes an all too rare appearance on our stage, following that as Mrs Maria Helliwell in When We are Married. This time she plays a wife in an even more complicated situation.

Jeff Casterton (Inspector Egan) - Town Councillor (Brass Tacks), Alderman (When We are Married), Removal Man (Village Fete), Bishop (Pools Paradise) Chairman (EBDG) - is there no job this man won't do? Jeff directed our last production of Lord Arthur Savile's Crime and has returned to acting for a rest.
