NIGHTMARE

by
NORMAN ROBBINS

The action takes place in the living room of the isolated cottages of Marion Bishop, an elderly writer of romantic novels, who is dying. Katherine Willis, a kindly soul from the nearby village, looks after Marion, while coping with her mentally retarded brother. When Katherine and Michael go away to a wedding in Scotland, Andrew Thorne, the Doctor brings in Nurse Vinnecombe from London. A series of mysterious phone calls and the appearance of Marion's no-good nephew, Raymond, set off a nightmare situation.

THE CAST

MOLLY WOOD — a founder member of the Group. She is married with a grown up family, she lives in the village and works at the Medical Centre.

KIM LEVIS — She had never acted before she joined the Group four years ago. She lives in Bingham with her husband Bob and their two children and works as a secretary in Nottingham.

BOB LEVIS — he eventually decided to join Kim last year, bringing Greg along with him. This is his third part, each one a little bigger than the last — the lead next time?

GREG MORRALL — is not really mentally retarded, honestly. He works with Bob Levis and has acted in the same plays so far. He lives in Nottingham.

ALAN HAYDOCK — who usually wears his collar the other way round, is Rector of East Bridgford and Rural Dean of Bingham, he has 'starred' in many of our productions.

JEAN PRESTON — another founder member of the Group. She moved out of the village two years ago, but can't keep away and so travels from Farndon to be with us.

JEAN STARBUCK — also a keen member, she moved from Carlton to Shelford just to be closer to us. a member since 1981, we've lost count of the number of productions she's been in.
