

We owe thanks to so many people and organisations who have helped make this production possible.

We are particularly grateful to Mark and Sarah, licensees at the Royal Oak, for Club Nights and rehearsal facilities. Thanks also to East Bridgford News and the Post Office for selling tickets. A special thanks to the Bonington Players and Philip Chapman for loaning 'difficult to obtain props'.

Finally a huge 'thank you' to so many friends and members who have loaned props and help with set build and refreshments.

We are always delighted for new members to join the group, either acting or working behind the scenes. If you are interested please talk to any member of the group or phone Michael Clarke on 01949 20682 for details of our meetings. Alternatively contact us via our website - www.ebdg.co.uk.

We have a number of exciting productions under consideration for next season requiring actors of all ages. You have seen the high standard we manage to achieve – come along and get involved – we have a lot of fun.

Membership also entitles you to attend our entertaining and informative monthly meetings and various theatre visits.

Director's Notes

The action takes place in the lounge of the Mount Home for retired theatricals, somewhere in the South of England.

The Mount Home for Retired Theatricals is an unusual place - more like a country house hotel than a home for the elderly. The manageress positively encourages residents to carry on working as long as they can. When Walter Neville (veteran of 212 films) arrives, he is overjoyed to find some of his best friends in residence. All is well until the serial womaniser ex-husband of three of the residents goes missing - apparently on the run from Russian gangsters.

Coming up in May...

A BOLT FROM THE BLUE

A comedy by David Tristram, 10-14th May.

Edward Jones was just an ordinary man, doing ordinary things - until the day before his 40th birthday. What happened next was, quite literally, incredible. It defies belief. It defies logic. It defies the fundamental laws of science and nature... But it happened.

This should be great fun, DON'T MISS IT! you will get to see not one but FIVE new actors to the village hall, treading the boards in May. (Although 4 you may have seen at our panto in November at the school).

Plus Jon Shepherd will be directing his first play. He is usually to be found in the sound and lighting box and is very much looking forward to a new challenge, working with such a talented cast.
