PACK OF LIES

by HUGH WHITEMORE

TUES 12 - SAT 16 FEB.

1991

DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

In 1961, two Americans living in a London suburb, were convicted of spying for the Russians and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment. From these true facts Hugh Whitemore has written a powerfully moving account of the events leading up to their arrest with the action centred on the totally unsuspecting household - Bob, Barbara and their daughter Julie. The Jacksons live opposite Helen and Peter Kroger, a convivial Canadian couple and their closest friends. Then a mysterious stranger arrives . . .

In the nightmare months that follow, the Jacksons' decent, happy life is shattered.

I sincerely hope that you enjoy this play. It was "PACK OF LIES" that inspired me to join East Bridgford Drama Group six years ago and I have had a passion to be involved with its production ever since. Not only have I had the great pleasure of experiencing the art of acting in previous plays but now, as Director of "Pack of Lies", my ambition has been fulfilled. Therefore - you only have Hugh Whitemore to blame!!

Thank you for your support and we hope you can be with us in May, when our next production is the comedy by Neil Simon :—
