Ladies & Gentlemen,

I hope you enjoy this evening's performance of "She's Done It Again" a play which I performed in the early '70's at the Garrick Theatre.

I know you will have a super evening and the East Bridgford Drama Group look forward to seeing you at their Cheese & Wine Evening on Saturday 5th July, where the proceeds will be donated to Nottingham MENCAP.

Brian Rix

— See you Sunday —

Alan.

IN BRIEF

● The Glitter Band and Mungo Jerry recall the Seventies at Bingham Leisure Centre tonight.

● "Wild Knitting," an exhibition of non-wearable items, opens tomorrow at the Usher Gallery, Lincoln.

● Mike Pender's new Searchers, Mirror Image and the Royales will be at Rushcliffe Leisure Centre on Tuesday.

● Patrick Mower, Peter Gilmore and Prunella Gee are in "Gaslight" at Lincoln Theatre Royal from Monday.

Shocking bishop

There is a surprise for the Bishop of Upton (John Merry, left) in East Bridford Drama Group's presentation of Michael Pertwee's farce "She's Done It Again."

He is pictured with Cheryl Wright and Kerry Dracott in a scene from the show, which opens on Wednesday and runs until Saturday.

FILMS

"Colonel Redl" (15) at Nottingham Film Theatre this weekend centres on a cause celebre in Vienna on the eve of the first world war.

"The Last Waltz" (U) at Mansfield Community Arts Centre on Sunday in Scorsese's definitive documentary about The Band.

"Prizzi's Honour" (15) at Newark's Paragon from tonight has Jack Nicholson and Kathleen Turner in a bizarre Mafia romantic comedy.
