

We owe thanks to so many people and organisations who have helped make this production possible.

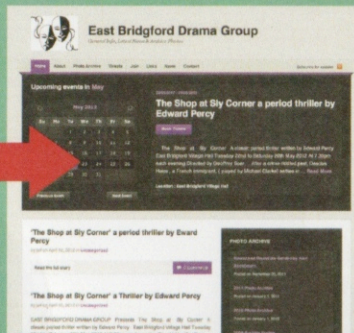

We are particularly grateful to Mark, landlord of the Royal Oak for Club Nights and rehearsal facilities. Thanks also to East Bridgford News and Post Office for selling tickets.

Finally a huge 'thank you' to so many friends and members who have loaned props, furnishings and costumes and help with set build and refreshments.

You can see from this programme that we highly value contributions from new members who are warmly welcomed. If you have enjoyed the show tonight and fancy helping out, acting or backstage, or know of friends who might be interested, please contact our Secretary, Michael Clarke, on 01949 20682 or contact us via the website. www.ebdg.co.uk

Unmarried sisters, Nina and Nancy share a London flat. Nina is outgoing, brisk and gainfully employed while Nancy is depressed, self conscious and redundant. Urged by her sister and their friend Max to find a hobby, Nancy stumbles into a job as a model for a group of eccentric life drawing students and their philandering teacher Philip, who is on the rebound from his latest girlfriend Zelda.

Sitting pretty is written by the daughter of the playwright Jack Rosenthal and the actress Maureen Lipman and was written when she was 23.

Amy must have inherited the best of genes from both parents to write this beautifully observed, bitter sweet play at such a young age.

The action of the play takes place in London in 3 different locations: the living room of the small flat of Nina and Nancy, an art studio and a National Gallery cafe.

The play takes place between the end of April until September.

We owe thanks to lots of people and organisations who have helped make this production possible.

East Bridgford News and Post Office for selling tickets.

Mark, the landlord of the Royal Oak, Main Street, East Bridgford, for rehearsal facilities.

Friends and members of the group who have loaned props, furnishings and costumes and all those who help with set-build and serving refreshments. Without their efforts and commitment we could not exist.
