

As usual East Bridgford Drama Group would like to thank:

Frank Smith, Landlord at the Royal Oak for providing our rehearsal facilities.

East Bridgford News and East Bridgford Post Office for selling tickets; also members and friends of the group who have kindly loaned furniture, props, and costumes, not forgetting all those who have helped with the set build and serving refreshments.

Would you like to join us?

We are always in need of new members to act or to work backstage. As you can imagine there are numerous jobs that take a variety of skills for each production and there is always someone willing to teach any inexperienced person, all you need is enthusiasm, we were all new once! Don't just watch the telly, get involved in live theatre! If you would like to join the group please ring our secretary, Michael Clarke, on: 01949 20682 or ask any member of the group.

Tonight's Cast

Kate Thornburrow. Usually you will see Kate's name in the programme for her roles as Director or in charge of Lighting and Sound. Tonight we are delighted to welcome her back where she belongs, as a housemaid.

Jean Starbuck. A familiar face to those of you who regularly attend our productions, Jean brings all her considerable skills to the demanding role of Miriam.

Michael Clarke. Another stalwart of the Group, Michael has the usual tussle with whether to have facial hair or not. As usual the Director triumphed!

Victoria Pepper. As well as taking part in the play, Victoria is making her directorial debut. We are pleased that Director Victoria knows her own mind rather better than does her character Molly.

Malcolm Cope. This is Malcolm's largest role and his most sinister. Not like Malcolm at all.....really.

Alan Haydock. 'Evening All' Alan's back on the boards, this time as a proper policeman, not the phoney he played in 'Theft'.
