possible. We owe thanks to lots of people and organisations who have helped make this production East Bridgford News and Post Office for selling tickets. Viv and Andy of the Reindeer Inn for rehearsal facilities. Lowdham Leisurworld for helping create the setting of the play and the Royal Oak for allowing us to host our Club Nights there. Also friends and members of the group who have loaned props, furnishings and costumes and all those who help with set-build and serving refreshments. Without their efforts and commitment we could not exist.

Sue's immediate neighbours are Tony and Jenny who are having a few troubles of their own. Never mind, Neville's barbeque will sort out all the problems—won't it?

Neville goes there every year with Mary, his wife, this year Mary's sister, Liz, reluctantly accompanies them.

Meet Sue, on holiday, trying to relax and get some peace and quiet but, thanks to Neville, the caravan site 'know-all', never quite managing to get five minutes to herself.
