Some Thoughts on Marriage

Marriage is a wonderful invention; but, then again, so is the bicycle repair kit.

Billy Connolly

When I was young my family was so poor that I always had to share my bed with my brother. I never knew what it was like to sleep alone until I was married.

Michael Godfrey

Marriage must be a relationship of either sympathy or conquest.

Voltaire

I chose my wife, as she did her wedding gown, not for fine glossy surface, but for such qualities as would wear well.

Oliver Goldsmith

If you cannot have your dear husband for a comfort and a delight, for a breadwinner and a crosspatch, for a sofa, chair or hot-water bottle, one can use him for a cross to be borne.

Stevie Smith
