

As usual East Bridgford Drama Group would like to thank:
Frank Smith, Landlord at the Royal Oak, for providing our rehearsal facilities.

James P. Spencer Ltd, Building Contractors (0115 933 3033).

East Bridgford News and East Bridgford Post Office for selling tickets; also members and friends of the group who have kindly loaned furniture, props, and costumes, not forgetting all those who have helped with the set build and serving refreshments.

We need new members!

We are always in need of new members to act or to work backstage. As you can imagine there are numerous jobs that take a variety of skills for each production and there is always someone willing to teach any inexperienced person; all you need is enthusiasm, we were all new once! Don't just watch the telly, why not get involved in live theatre? We also hold play readings all through the summer months and have social events. If you would like to join the group please ring our secretary, Michael Clarke, on: 01949 20682 or ask any member of the group.

Our Next Production

February 27th—March 3rd 2007

The perfect finish to your evening, a visit to the Royal Oak, Main Street, East Bridgford; the group recommend its friendly atmosphere.

You can be sure of a warm welcome at St Peter's, East Bridgford's 13th century church.

Tonight's Cast

David Darby displays his talent and versatility this week playing the very different roles of Léon and Piers with confidence and panache.

Jackie Valentine, returning to the group after a long absence, portrays Abby, the devoted wife and charming hostess....or is she?

Peter Salter plays Raymond, a successful journalist. Will his investigative skills be needed this evening or will he be as much "in the dark" as everyone else?

Sophie, Ray's long-suffering wife, is played by a new but very experienced member of our group, Marjory Soar. She appears to rise above Ray's occasional sarcasm but..... we all have our secrets.

Jeff Casterton plays John Drummond, a successful 'rough diamond' and a good friend. Or perhaps not? Someone doesn't seem to think so.

Valerie Allen, as Molly, says little but sees a lot! Living with John may not be as easy as it looks.....and it doesn't look too easy.

Michael Clarke plays Inspector Norbert Plum, the local Plod. Is his brand of apologetic insistence masking Sherlock-like qualities or is there much less to him than meets the eye?

Piers Gerard is certainly an elusive character. Len Jackson plays him (sometimes) as a smooth Californian. David sees him differently! Who is he really? Perhaps we shall find out!
