Hello to members and followers of the EBDG,
I hope you've had an enjoyable Christmas, with friends and family, and been able to create some happy memories to treasure.

I started the month, along with lots of other members, participating in a quiz team at a charity fundraising event. A lot of fun, I loved the music round!

I was then on the audition panel for our forthcoming production of A Breath of Spring. The play has been cast and rehearsals will begin next week. I look forward to being involved, directing, in support of Len and Caroline.

I was pleased to see we were able to provide a decorated tree which was displayed in St. Peter's Church for the welcome return of The Christmas Tree Festival. Thanks to all those who members who made this possible and take a look at the photos.

My theatre trips this month included a day in London to see Come from Away which is now coming to the end of its successful run and to get into the Christmas spirit I saw The Flint Street Nativity at the Lace Market theatre. It is always an enjoyable experience watching others perform on stage.

Whilst I was at the Lace Market I was recognised on 2 separate occasions by people who had been to see Something to Hide in November and commented very positively about our production. Always great to hear feedback.

So, as we approach the end of 2022, may I wish you all a very happy New Year. Whatever your plans are for celebrating on New Years Eve, have a good one.

I must now go and check my costume still fits for the character Tony Revolta as I have been invited to a murder mystery evening and 80 's disco.....perhaps there will be photos shared in next month's Newsletter? Cheers, Karen.

Group members take on the best role in December!

A couple of our members
took on the role of Father Christmas this festive month.
The children
were so happy to be able to greet Santa up close again!

New Years Dinner Friday 20th January

Members are looking forward to our yearly trip to Ashmores in Radcliffe for our New Years dinner. Menu choices have been sent out (please email Karen if you haven't done so

March Play ~ Breath of Spring by Peter Coke

No sooner than our November play had finished, auditions were done and the cast was set for our March play Breath of Spring by Peter Coke. Directed by Len Jackson. It is a comedy in three acts, set in London in the mid 1950s.

Performance dates: Tuesday 14th March 2023 to Saturday 18th March 2023.

Flintham Advent Windows 2022

Members of our group who live in Flintham took part in their village advent windows. Hope you were able to take a stroll to see them. They looked beautiful. This creation was by Caroline and Mark. You can catch up with some of the photos on Facebook if you are a user of this platform. Search for Fosse Group of Parishes.
