Hello members and followers of EBDG

I hope this newsletter finds you well and enjoying the summer....even if the weather isn't what we would hope for. Still, a day of rain didn't dampen our spirits when some of us went to Skegvegas as you can see from the photos below. Perhaps sunnier days are round the corner?

Other events that have taken place during this month include a practical workshop, our AGM and rehearsals began for Wait until Dark with our first read through.

I know many members have got holidays booked in the coming weeks so why don't you share a photo for the August edition of the newsletter?

When we all return after our summer breaks it will be Christmas that is just round the corner! Today it's 147 days to be precise
Ta ra for now

Congratulations to our member Michael.

What was left of the cake ( mainly the part with Michael's photo ) was enjoyed by everyone at the Care Group coffee morning the following Wednesday so some got bits of his head or body !

St Peter's Church in East Bridgford celebrated Michael Clarke's 50 years as a licensed lay minister. Michael received a letter of thanks from Bishop Paul as well as thanks for his ministry in the Fosse Group from Reverend Ruth Colby. The evening was topped off with a delicious celebration cake, enjoyed by the congregation. Photos are: Michael and Reverend Ruth Colby; Michael and Pattie with Revd Ruth Colby, Canon John Chambers, and Canon Alan Haydock.

Our last club night on non verbal communication was a great success and very informative. Thank you Rowena.

THEATRE RECOMMENDATIONS

We thoroughly enjoyed last night's performance of the Thirty Nine Steps. It was a superb performance by an actor called Jonathan Goodwin, in a lovely setting and even the weather was kind and we stayed warm and dry. The same actor is performing in The Sign of Four on August 10th which is about Sherlock Holmes and his associated characters. There are several open air performances between now and August 30th. They can be viewed on the Newark Palace website.
