This was Karen in Hobson's Choice November 2019

Hello members and followers of E.B.D.G.
It's happened! The well organised gang managed to avoid a stretch in Holloway and, I admit, I was guilty of aiding and abetting Bee and co. when I agreed to hide stolen furs. Shhh. They are now safely locked away in the loft thanks to the Sunday Set Strike team. What a great week of performances from the cast of a 'Breath of Spring'. Well done to everyone involved.

No sooner was the stage packed away for the next 3 months plans had already begun for the next play 'Deckchairs'. I shall be overseeing the whole production and directing 2 of the 5 playlets. Rehearsals are underway, the production team is growing with several key people identified and ideas for publicity are taking shape.

"Woh, I'm going to Bridgebados
Woh, back to 'The Oak' trees
Woh, I'm going to see my girlfriend
Woah in the River Trent, NOT sea.

(Adapted from the song Barbados by Typically Tropical for all those music fans out there)

I am particularly pleased to report that all 5 of our new members, who have only been with us since May, will be involved in Deckchairs.

Finally, I have received lots of feedback from members who are in favour of a trip to 'Skegvegas'. So I am presently trying to organise that for an April daytrip. Exciting times ahead.

Ta Ra for now,
Karen.
